

DON MIRAULT

He appeared on Broadway as Zach in “A Chorus Line”, he played Fred Casely in Bob Fosse's “Chicago” and you’ve seen him in the Broadway production of “Baby”. He performed the lead adagio in the “Folies Bergere” in Las Vegas. Don has worked in every dance medium from Cruise Lines to MTV. He is the creator of Virtualdanceclass.com where teachers have access to class combinations from Choreographers and Studio Teachers. He has helped hundreds of dancers launch their dance careers with his book “Dancing...For A Living”. Don has created three instructional videos “Lifts...For Your Choreography”, “Lifts...For Kids and Advanced Lifts and Partner Work.” He conducts adagio classes across the country specializing in helping male dancers and partners. A keynote speaker at colleges and universities, Don continues to educate dancers and teachers on the business of dance and how to become a professional. A master class teacher and national judge for numerous competition/conventions including Joe Tremaine, Starpower, Encore, Rainbow Connection, Talent on Parade, Al Gilbert and many more.

As an actor, you’ve seen him on;
Star Trek The Next Generation
The Golden Girls
The Hogan Family
Saved By The Bell
CSI
The Pretender
The Strip
Knott’s Landing
“Miss Congeniality Two”
and as Valentine on General Hospital